WOMAN DISPLAYS SPLENDID BRAVERY

Saved Three Men Besides Her Husband—Brakeman's Great Presence of Mind.

Stories of heroic experiences are told by those who escaped death in the Atlantic City accident. Mrs. M. J. DeFord, of Philadelphia, who was in the train, told the following story:

"When the train went overboard, I was looking out of the window. It was terrible. I saw that we were all doomed, and my first thought was of my husband. The car plunged over the side, and the water rushed into the windows and doorways. Fortunately, I am a good swimmer. The Lord only knows how I broke my way through a window, but I did. As I rose to the surface, I thought of my husband, and I saw that he was in the water. I went down and found him. I went down and found him. I went down and found him.
